

WHERE ARE WE IN PUBLICATIONS?

2014 NATIONAL INTEGRITY SURVEY

There are significant gaps in information about the public sector

Research Report by Transparency Vanuatu

25% VERY WEAK

There was a very weak practice of the proactive publication of information to the public domain.

In the absence of freedom of information laws the extent to which public sector agencies will disclose information held on citizens depends entirely on goodwill relationships.

(Pg. 77)

PUBLIC RELATIONS & THE RIGHT TO INFORMATION

PART 2, DIVISION 1

There are 15 categories of information. They must be published and disseminated in each official language.

'PUBLIC RELATIONS' ARTICLE

There is one article that encourages public relations – the disclosure of information to the public domain on a regular basis.

In 2019 the RTI Unit published its first assessment of Government websites to rate their compliance to the RTI Act.

Go to the link below to access the document;
https://rti.gov.vu/images/PDFs/Reports/Agency_Online_Proactive Assesment.pdf

MAINTAIN PUBLIC INTERACTION

WHAT TO PUBLISH

News, announcements, tenders, financial news, activities, activity progress and failures.

WHERE TO PUBLISH?

Radio, TV, newspaper and social media.

Schedule a monthly Public Conference Event & GO LIVE!

It is better and smarter to be proactive than to have to react to a situation.

TANK YU

